IENTEN RULES FOR CATHOLICS.

A CIRCULAR ISSUED BY MONSIGNOR PRESTO TO BE READ IN THE CHURCHES.

The instructions to be followed by Catholics for the observance of Lent have just been issued by Non-signor Preston, who has charge of the diocese during the absence of Archbishop Corrigan. The cer-cular, referring to those who are exempt from the passengers on La Normandie were M. Leon Bellaquet. obligation of fasting (but not of abstinence from fle-hmest, except in special cases of sickness), says that such persons shall be the "infirm, those who are attaining their growth, those whose duties are of an exhausting or laborious character, women in pregnancy or nursing infants, and those who are en techled by old age." All the week days of Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, according to the circular, are fast days of precept on one meal, with the allowance of a moderate supper in the evening. ese dispensations for this diocese are granted by the authority of the Holy Sec:

The use of flesh meat, as also of eggs and white meats, is permitted at every meal on the Sundays of Lent, and at the principal meal on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with the exception of Ember Saturday and Holy Saturday.

The use of white meats is allowed every day in Lent at the evening collation, and also at the principal meal on the days on which the use of flesh meat is chocolate, can be taken in the morning.

Where it is not convenient to take the principal meal at noon, it is lawful to invert the order and take the collation in the morning and dinner in the evening.

Dripping and lard may be used in the preparation of the kinds of took which are permitted.

On Sundays there is neither fast nor abstinence, but the cannot be used with field meat at the same meal at any time during Leut.

These who are exempt from the precept of fasting can particle of field ment at every used during the day, when by special indulgence flesh meat is permitted at the principal meal.

These instructions will be published at the

These instructions will be published at the masses in all the Catholic churches to-day.

IMPORTING DIAMONDS THROUGH THE MAILS. A package of diamonds valued at $1,800 was postoffice department of the Custom House on Friday, for violation of the postal laws. The diamonds were imported for B. H. Davis & Co., of No. 41 Maiden Lane. A member of the firm called at the Custom House and said that the agent who imported the diamonds lytended no violation of the laws. It appears that no suspicious are entertained that he did, and it is believed that Secretary Windom

CHICKENS TO BE BEHEADED IN COURT.

NOTE.

A queer crowd was that which Chief Justice McAdam peered at over the rim of his spectacles in the City Court yesterday; fifty Chinamen and nearly the same number of Americans. Ranged in front of the judge were five defendants, Chu Fong, Mon Lee, Hong Yuen, Chu John, and Fong Hip, whom Seth R. Johnson is suing for a balance of $1,801.04 upon a promissory note dated November 22, 1869. The note was signed with the name of Mansingson & Co., of No. 813 Broadway, and was indorsed by Quong Hong Luong. The defendants all protested that, although the note bore their firm name and was credited with a payment of $179 so, they had never authorized its execution. and contended that it was the fruit of a conspiracy between Mr. Johnson and one Chu Fong.

the plaintiff, and M. C. Beecher and ex Judge Morgan for the defendants. The testimony taken was interesting, but there was a prospect of beheading poultry and the crowd waited. The only Chinaman worn was Moc Que, and the Bible was good enough for him, he having been converted to Christianity The hearing was adjourned until next Saturday, The hearing was adjourned until next Saturday, and Justice McAdam told the witnesses that they must come prepared with their own poultry, adding: "A witness ought to be sworn in a manner that binds his conscience, no matter how old the form may seem to others. He is the sole judge of his religious convictions, and courts must recognize his right to determine for himself the faith in which he is to dive and die. Courts cannot determine what religion a man shall follow hor what belief he shall entertain. The witnesses in this case must be sworn in the manner that binds their conscience and this will be left to them for determination."

*Take duty." Mr. Lorbacher explained that this package had slipped through the postoffice department of the Custom House, having been imported through the mails by an agent who did not understand the law, but who had written "Take duty." to show that the package contained dutiable articles. The diamonds were worth $400, and, of course, Mr. Lorbacher recovers them on the payment of the duty after the formalities have been completed.

A PAIR FOR A HARD WORKING MISSION.

The diffh annual report of the Mission of Car Lady of the Resary, for the protection of immigrant girls at Castle Garden, is a creditable one, nearly 4,000 young immigrant girls averaging twenty years of age, having passed through its Home for the year just ended. All of these young girls remained at the Home for more or less time, as circumstances demanded—namely, unditted the country, delivered to their relatives and friends, or until employment was secured for them. The large daily expenses incumbent upon the Mission from the work, together with the interest upon a mortgage of $60,000, have been successfully met, leaving a small surplus in the treasury to begin the new Cathedral, Sacred Heart, St. John the Evangelist, Our Lady of Good Comneel, St. Catherine of Genoa, Holy Name, and others are already preparing for the work. The chairman, Joseph J. O'Donolno, who is one of the trustees of the Institution, has been from the beginning indecaringable in his offerts to forward the interests of the fair, and under his energetic guidance there is little doubt of its success.

Grave fears are entertained here for the safety of the teamer Camerata, which left this port on January s for thirdiff. She has not been heard from since her departure, and a vessel which arrived at her coparties, and respect that she passed a foundered brigantine-rigged steamer. The Camerata answers this description. She was 622 tons net, and 922 gross, 210 feet long, 29 wide and 15 deep. She was commanded by Captain Taylor, who had under him a crew of twenty-two men. The Camerata had a cargo of 61,000 bushels of oats. The steamer was the president Mrs. F. A. Van iderstein. Miss Harriet Young, who for some years was a teacher among the Pigan Zollans, gave a short talk about her life among the Indians. She speke very encouragingly of the work already accomplished in the schools and showed the great need of mission work among these people, the children
